Public invited to attend informational travel seminar on August 8

Topeka---Has everyone in your office already gone on vacation this summer and you are still stuck at home, unsure what to do, watching the months pass by? Has it been years since you promised your spouse that “dream” trip to celebrate a special milestone? Are you curious about what it would be like to go on a cruise?

Professional Travel Consultant Marge Herman, in conjunction with Please Go Away Vacations, is hosting an informational travel seminar to answer all your travel questions. The seminar will be held at the Kansas Museum of History, Meeting Room A off the main lobby, 625 SW Sixth Avenue in Topeka, on Sunday, August 8, at 2pm. The event is free of charge and the public is invited to attend. Travel seminar attendees are allowed to visit museum exhibits before for after the travel seminar free of charge.

At the travel seminar, attendees will learn about independent or “on-your-own” travel, group travel, latest trends in cruise vacations, and the most popular United States and foreign destinations. Attendees will also receive free passport photos and applications, information about security, how to pack a suitcase, and ways to save money.

Reservations are not necessary, but encouraged. If you would like to attend and learn more about traveling, please contact Marge Herman at 785-272-8751.

Note: All media are invited to attend. Photo opportunities available.
